

ARTIST STATEMENT

My woodblock prints are based on themes of life, death and memory. Each print focuses on a different aspect, yet they all seek to evoke feelings of uneasiness and nostalgia from the viewer. The easiest way for the viewer to identify such emotion is with the use of the human figure as the subject. Put in various positions and unidentified situations the viewer can begin to interpret his/her own feelings of life, death and memory.