

Artist's Statement
Frederic C. Kaplan

My pictures are about dualities – in human action and interaction.

Their foundation lies in the realms of relativistic and quantum physics – and in how they have shaped our understanding of our lives in this universe.

The tool used to make my pictures is geometry – of spatial conceptions, perceptions of illumination, and chromatic impressions.

These are pictures about us – and our place in the cosmos.